BIG NEWS! Lighthouse TV's Live, Daily, Morning Show

FACE THE DAY WITH FAITH | M-F | 9AM EST

Over half of Americans watch TV to relieve stress, but we're still growing more fearful and anxious. What if there was a place—somewhere in this streaming—24-hour world—where you could find a few minutes of encouragement and hope? Where you'd start the day—not looking away—but looking straight ahead with fearlessness and courage.

Get Ready for ## MORNING LIGHT!

Each weekday, Jeff Coleman, co-host Debra Pinkerton, and the on-air team of Morning Light will deliver positively different morning programming. The show will engage national and state headlines with wider context—framed by history and faith. The program is designed with longer, in-depth segments, giving viewers time to absorb and respond to information.

From the challenge of relationships, staying healthy, raising children, and growing older to the forgotten story of Pennsylvania's faith trail, and the music inspiring and animating daily life, Morning Light invites viewers to face the day with faith and courage.

Morning Light will be produced in our brand new, state-of-the-art studio in Harrisburg, PA.

Stay tuned for details and our show launch in August 2024!

East Point Lighthouse

East Point Lighthouse is an active lighthouse built in 1849. Situated on the Southern Bayshore in Cumberland County, New Jersey, this fully restored and furnished lighthouse's beacon serves as an active navigational aid nightly as well as a year-round museum. It's open to the public to climb/tour year-round. The Lighthouse and grounds are on the National Historic Registry. East Point is the second oldest lighthouse in New Jersey and the only remaining New Jersey land based lighthouse on the Delaware Bay.

For more information visit eastpointlight.com or call (856) 785-0349.

We are thrilled to unveil the new Lighthouse TV studio in Harrisburg, PA. The new studio is positioned to add a significant expansion of our broadcasting capabilities into Central Pennsylvania. This state-of-the-art facility not only solidifies our presence in the Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia but also enhances our ability to connect with and serve the local communities through a variety of new programming. We eagerly anticipate the ways in which this location will enrich our offerings and help us forge stronger connections with local ministries and communities. Stay tuned for more exciting updates and behind-the-scenes peeks into this vibrant new hub of Christian broadcasting.

Message from Margaret

“That’s Not the God I Know”

“What do you think? If a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them has gone astray, does he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountains and go in search of the one who went astray? And if He finds it, truly, I say to you, he rejoices over it more than over the ninety-nine that never went astray.” Matthew 18:11-13

Do we ever really think what an amazing, loving, and merciful God we have! Everyday life gets in the way. The stress of life in this fallen world. Broken relationships, financial trouble, divorce, the grief of losing a loved one and the list goes on. Those who don't know the Savior live lives with no hope for tomorrow. They don't see a God who is on this journey with them and they think they are alone. As Christians we know that is far from the truth.

As Matthew 18 states, he left those 99 to search for the one who strayed, that is the God I Know! How precious that one was to Him!

He loves us more than we can imagine. Let's remember that today. You are not unloved, not forgotten, and you are not alone to face whatever it is you are facing right now. Be blessed! You are loved and cared for by the one who loves you supremely!

I recently got a chance to see the Collingsworth Family in concert. What a great night. Let me leave you with a few Lyrics from the Collingsworth song “That’s the God I Know”.

The One I know will go, to the darkest place to reach you,

No matter how far, He'll come to where you are to meet you.

The One I know will stay when others go away and leave you,

If you think that God is far away and cold, that's not the God I know.

Meet Joe Watkins, Host of State of Independence.

Joe Watkins' remarkable journey from the projects of Queens to the White House with President George H.

W. Bush exemplifies a life of dignity and trust in God. His experiences inspire others to find value in every person.

As a respected commentator on major networks like Bloomberg, MSNBC, CNN, and Fox News, Joe has consistently advocated for civility and decency in public discourse. Joe's rich background bring insightful observations to complex issues.

Joe's political career began in 1981 with U.S. Senator Dan Quayle and saw him as the Republican nominee for Indiana's 10th Congressional District in 1984. Although unsuccessful, he continued to impact higher education and politics, including a significant role in the Bush/Quayle 1988 campaign, leading to his White House position as associate director of Public Liaison.

Post-politics, Joe has led various charity and non-profit organizations, drawing from his academic foundation—a BA in History from the University of Pennsylvania and an MA in Christian Education from Princeton Theological Seminary.

He now resides in Philadelphia with his wife Stephanie and their family. Joe served as the pastor of Christ Evangelical Lutheran Church, the oldest African American Lutheran Church in Philadelphia. He continues to influence through faith and community engagement.
